Dr. Arthur Deering Call

President of the American Peace Society

734 Jackson Place, Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

In response to a suggestion made in a letter received to-day from Mr. George S. Godard, State Librarian in the Connecticut State Library, I beg to send you under separate cover, a copy of our publication on Indian Peace Medals. The price of this volume is five dollars, and if on examination it proves worth that amount to you I shall be very glad. In case you do not desire to keep it, return it at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
